

8 to 4 Not Your Style?

What can you do when you don't want the typical 8 to 4 office job? There are lots of possibilities. Just look at some of these examples.

Mystery Shopper: There are hundreds of market research companies that will pay Mystery Shoppers (also called Secret Shoppers) up to $24 per hour to perform a variety of services, usually on a part time basis.

Sports Jobs for Women: Sports careers are available nationwide from Internships, Entry Level to Executive positions. Through a national job database you have access to thousands of sports employment openings with professional organizations like the NCAA, USOC, WNBA, NBA, PGA, WUSA, NHL, MLS, MLB teams, as well as corporations with openings in your field of interest, including Front Office Management, Public Relations, Sports Marketing, Sales, Broadcasting & Journalism, Sports Administration, Law, New Media & Media Relations, Finance, Event Management, Sports Medicine, Health & Fitness and more!

Body Parts Model: Advertisers are always looking for a specific look or style or size of body parts for their ads. Some professional models make a good living on the basis of just one or two limbs.

Magician Assistants: No, you won't be sawed in half in these jobs. Professional magicians need administrative and logistical help while on the road.

Intern - MTV: An MTV Networks Internship allows college students to work in an innovative, progressive, fast paced and professional environment. Students are exposed to all levels of MTV Networks, which has proven to be an invaluable experience to individuals interested in pursuing a career in the entertainment industry. MTV Networks is committed to diversifying their organization, one of the most visible ways is through their internship program.

Embracing differences is an integral part of the MTV culture and a key element for their success is creating and maintaining an inclusive environment.

World Cup Soccer Referee: U.S. soccer team members aren't the only Yanks feeling intense World Cup pressure. The referees carry a similar burden in this tournament.

Intern: Six Degrees Records is a San Francisco-based eclectic, independent music label. They produce and market accessible, genre-bending records that explore world music traditions, modern dance grooves, electronic music, and intelligent pop music. They hire passionate, reliable, organized, and enthusiastic interns with excellent communication skills to work in publicity, marketing, sales and promotions.

Professional Race Car Driver: Are you interested in speed? Do you think you could make a living as a race car driver? Find out how to start down the path of becoming a Professional Race Car Driver.

Club Med G.O.: 10,000 young men and women from nearly 70 countries around the world who have one primary function: to create the best possible vacation for Club Med's guests.

"Go confidently in the direction of your dreams. Live the life you've imagined."
Thoreau

DGA Trainee: The Assistant Directors Training Program was established in 1965. Sponsored by the Directors Guild of America and the Alliance of Motion Picture and Television Producers, the Program's purpose is to train Second Assistant Directors for the motion picture and television industry. Since its inception, more than 450 men and women from diverse backgrounds have graduated from the Program and gone on to successful careers in the business.

Working with an Outward Bound type organization as an instructor, assistant, or even an intern can be an adventure from beginning to end. Your work will involve continuous exploration of new geographies and discovering new things about the world around you every day.

Many tour companies are full service outfitters offering guided raft, canoe and kayak river trips, hiking and backpacking trips, old mine tours, and van or horseback tours of National and State Parks throughout the country.

Source: www.cooljobs.com

Brought to you by:

NHCRN
New Hampshire Career Resource Network
New Hampshire Employment Security
Economic & Labor Market Information Bureau
32 So. Main Street (603) 229-4489 Concord, NH 03301